A Note from the President/CEO

In April of 1966, Dexter Shoe Federal Credit Union was chartered by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). And now here we are, fifty years later, a $100 million financial institution and still growing! I often wonder if the original shoe workers who signed that first charter ever thought that their Credit Union would become what it is today.

Maine Highlands FCU has seen some remarkable changes over the years. It has gone from a shoe box that was carried around by Frank Perry to a five branch operation. Frank and Helmi Perry brought life to the Credit Union and established the first real office, starting in a small trailer and then eventually a main office on the corner of Lincoln and Main Streets in Dexter. And that office was their home for twenty-three years. I had the pleasure of working with both Frank and Helmi for three years before their retirement.

Then it became my turn to take the helm. That first year was the biggest learning curve for me, but I had plenty of help from the Board of Directors, Betty Chabot, and Steve Clark, CEO of Bangor Federal Credit Union. And perhaps my greatest challenge was gaining the acceptance of the members. I heard many "when Frank was here" comments when decisions were made that did not necessarily make members happy, but I eventually overcame that obstacle and was finally recognized as the person in charge. It was onward and upward from there.

I am now celebrating my thirtieth anniversary with Maine Highlands FCU. It is an honor for me to serve as the Credit Union's President. Looking back, it has been an amazing ride. And I am excited for what the future holds. The members and employees have made this Credit Union what it is today. Through their dedication and loyalty, MHFCU has become a permanent fixture in the communities that we serve.

Humbly,

Rhonda Taylor
President/CEO

Employees Danielle Mailloux and Rich Jarnecki are all smiles after receiving MHFCU's 10th place award for Total funds Raised ($16,720.42) for the 2015 Maine Credit Unions' Campaign for Ending Hunger. Olympic champion Mark Spitz (right) was the guest speaker at this year's luncheon.

Another Chili/Chowder sale in February helped raise funds to end hunger. Dexter CU employee Shelley Blockler, along with other Dexter office employees, worked to bring over $190 for Maine Credit Unions' Campaign for Ending Hunger.
